AIRBORNE GLOBAL SOLUTIONS LAUNCHES NEW DIVISION
GLOBAL FLIGHT SOURCE (GFS)

Wilmington, OH—9/1/2011—In accordance with corporate strategy to diversify, Airborne Global Solutions (AGS) launches a new division, Global Flight Source (GFS). The new company builds on its prior 30 years of experience with ABX Air, a cargo airline operator. Headquartered in Wilmington, Ohio, GFS will offer flight support services that specialize in dispatching, flight planning, training, and other flight support services.

Global Flight Source (GFS) will offer a wide variety of services to airports and airlines, including:

- Complete Route Planning
- Dispatch Release Generation
- Weather Analysis and Briefing
- 24 Hour Flight Following

GFS also will provide communications and weather capabilities:

- HF/VHF Radio
- ARINC/SITA/AFTN
- WSI Pilot Brief
- Flight Explorer

“With the economy still rebounding, companies are trying to find opportunities to be more cost efficient,” said Rich Corrado, President of AGS. “Being able to outsource dispatching and other flight services to Global Flight Source will be a great way for a company to improve its bottom line.”

“We have a broad range of services to offer companies looking for flight support services,” said Jim O’Grady, Managing Director of GFS. “GFS is looking forward to building off of its 30 years of success with ABX Air and bringing added value to customer’s portfolios.”
